about

Jivan van der Ende is a visual artist with a workwear kink.

“As long as I can remember I have been obsessed with workwear. To express my fascination for the objects I started to modify & skankify secondhand workwear. Since there wasn't really any workwear fetish gear available, I decided to spread my joy and launch my own fetisj label: High Vis.Online.”

In their artistic practices Jivan van der Ende researches expression of gender identity, objectification and commodification of the working body in capitalist, patriarchal society. Through collaboration, cross dressing and the exploration of the camp side of things, she discusses the way we look at bodies. More on their projects: jivanvanderende.com or IG jivanvanderende

We are based in Brussels and all our gear is made in our studio in Forest.
